We are looking for 2-4 professional artists, individuals or groups, to realize an art project where an impact in society is significant. We give priority to project ideas where access-ibility is taken into account in creative ways.

The project should interact with a selected target group or the project itself should address different societal issues, groupings, functions or phenomena.

We are looking for open-minded, inclusive project proposals with a social impact that can be perceived as easily accessible, touches the audience with its message or form and is of high quality.

It should be seen and felt, plain and simple!

To whom?

For professional artists and cultural workers who have a superb project idea that can be realised in South Ostrobothnia, from Malax to Kristinestad.

Content proposals where the audience has the opportunity to participate or be included will be seen as particularly interesting. It can be a collaboration with, for example, organisations, associations or companies, ranging from public art to research, social and immaterial realisation.
